LITTLE CAESARS[®] PIZZA DONATES BOBBLEHEADS TO CUJO'S KIDS

Pizza makers help Red Wings Goalie Curtis Joseph brighten kids' day

Detroit, MI - Little Caesars[®] Pizza has generously donated nearly 100 Curtis Joseph bobblehead dolls to Cujo's Kids, the foundation created by Red Wings goaltender Curtis Joseph, and his wife Nancy. The couple has purchased a suite at Joe Louis Arena for each Detroit Red Wings home game, and they donate it to patients of children's hospitals in Michigan. Hospitals that participate in the program are Children's Hospital of Michigan in Detroit, DeVos Children's Hospital in Grand Rapids and C.S. Mott Children's Hospital in Ann Arbor. The Joseph's began the program in Edmonton, continued in Toronto and currently operates it in Detroit.

The Joseph's makes sure that each child who attends a game receives a package of goodies including an autographed souvenir. The guests are also treated to dinner in the suite. In addition, the Joseph's completely remodeled the suite, ensuring it would be wheelchair accessible. Now, thanks to Little Caesars, children will each receive their own autographed "Cujo" bobblehead dolls.

Curtis and Nancy Joseph would like to thank Little Caesars for their charitable donation to Cujo's Kids. Employees of Little Caesars should feel good about their donation knowing that it will help bring smiles to the faces of sick Michigan children.

Fans who would like to purchase a Curtis Joseph bobblehead doll should visit participating Little Caesars restaurants or call the Little Caesars Customer Service Center at 1-800-7-CAESAR.
